LETTER FROM NEW YORK.

[FROM OUR REGULAR CORRESPONDENT.]

NEW YORK, Jan. 1, 1867.

"How stands the record of the dead old year?"

Among the Puritans, in Boston and other New England towns, New Year's day is generally spent in conning over accounts, in calculating "profit and loss" for the past twelve months,—in making balance sheets, in paying of last year's debts, and in opening new Day-books and Ledgers. Banks and counting rooms are open—merchants, brokers and traders of all sorts are busy at columns of figures, bills, receipts, greenbacks and revenue stamps,—the busy world of stores, shops, factories, mills, markets and offices are in full tide of operation.

In New York, New Year's day is quite another affair. Here almost all business is suspended, and stores, banks, shops and offices are closed. The occasion is very generally celebrated by an old Knickerbocker custom of "calls" made by the masculine portion of the community upon "lady friends." Cake, wine, pickled oysters, bourbon, bon-bons, sandwiches, coffee, cigars, bright-eyes, ruby lips, pearly teeth, smiling faces, dimples, diamonds, punch, pompadours, gas, gin-slings, silks, laces, low-necks, small talk, egg-nogg, music, champagne, tangle-leg and a head-ache, are crowded together in such vast quantities, and in such a state of inexplicable and inextricable confusion, that it is difficult to determine where one begins or another ends. And New Year's day here, has another blessed feature, growing out of this time honored custom of "calling round." As the wandering palmers in the middle ages, who spent their time in visiting holy shrines and sacred places, secured the favor of the Saints whom they met, so New Yorkers in their annual first day pilgrimages, renew their old acquaintances, secure the smiles of their lady friends, amicably heal little differences of etiquette, and bridge the way for further friendly greetings—possibly for matrimonial alliances.

Last night, the usual sacred and impressive Watch-night services were held by a large and devout congregation in nearly all the churches of the Methodist denomination. We dropped in at the old Methodist church in John street, and were both pleased and surprised to see the Rev. Gustavus Hines from your State, officiating in the pulpit. His very interesting and appropriate sermon was from the text

"Awake! Awake! put on thy strength, O Zion!"

In the elucidation of his theme, the reverend speaker discussed the important question, "What constitutes the moral strength and power of the Church?" arguing that it consists neither in numbers, wealth, nor ceremonies, but in unity. The power which Protestant christian denominations have attained and the success attending their labors, he contended, was the result of Unity in the fundamental principles of their faith and their action. In conclusion, he dwelt forcibly upon the necessity of the Church fulfilling all the christian duties of piety, of active benevolence, and of charity, as essential to the strength of the Church for producing the final triumph of its conflict with the world.

At the conclusion of the discourse, the congregation engaged in alternate prayer and singing, in the typical "Love Feast" and the narration by a large number, of their experience, until about two minutes before twelve o'clock midnight, when the whole congregation knelt in silent prayer. Amid most profound silence in the Church, the city bells far and near tolled out the dying year, and on their expiring cadence murmured the birth of the new year. At five minutes past twelve, the congregation broke the solemn stillness by an appropriate song, after which the doxology and the benediction.

RELIGIOUS MATTERS.

Religious revivals of great power are reported in progress at various points all over the country. A recent Convention of the "Church Union," pervaded by a tone of deep interest and characterized by a spirit of union and brotherly love, recently held in Philadelphia, passed the following among its resolutions:

> Resolved, In view of the prominence given in the prayers and promises of our Lord to the unity of His people and of its supreme importance, both to the church and the world, this Convention cordially unites in thanksgiving to God for the growing spirit of union which is drawing together Christians in bonds of united love and co-operation in the cause of their common Master.

A committee of the Pan-Anglican Synod is sending out an address to all the higher dignitaries of the Eastern Orthodox, or Greek Church, informing them of the position of the Western Orthodox Church, and making advances towards a fellowship of the two communions; and in this day of great religious movements this important advance inaugurated by the great Pan-Anglican Convention, may result in a unity of the Church of Christ throughout the world. Under the Greek branch of the Church throughout Russia, Turkey, Hungary, Greece and other parts of Europe and Asia are enrolled as many millions as under all the various sects of the Christian Church in America.

The Church of England has set on foot a project for the establishment of a Southern University in the United States, and the assistance of English churchmen in attaining that object has been sought by a published circular. It is stated by the London Advertiser that the "movement is not a sectional one. It is intended as an offering to the whole American Church, and not to the Southern States as against the Northern. Nor does it proceed from any single party in England; both High Church and Low Church are associated in it. All the archbishops and most of the bishops, all the colonial metropolitans and many well known leaders of Church opinion approve of it and have expressed their willingness to co-operate. Several eminent statesmen, both conservative and liberal, have promised to assist.

But, notwithstanding these evidences of a tendency to unity in the Church, all the leading denominational journals—the Methodist, the Baptist, the Episcopalian, the Presbyterian, and the Congregational, are all by the ears about something or other, oftentimes waxing hot in crimination and recrimination.

Upon the question of "close or open communion"—"loyal or clerical representations"—"ritualism"—"high or low church"—"sprinkling or immersion"—"congregational or choir singing," "standing or kneeling"—"psalms or hymns"—"oral or written prayers"—or sinking on a lower plane, the editors' pens engage in a fiercer strife about the relative merits of a sewing machine, young ladies' curls, gold watch chains, flowers or other ornaments of a bonnet, a standing or turnover collar, or some other equally important uncanonical and unscriptural theme.

Occasionally the Jewish journals take a hand in the intolerant tournament, and on behalf of the Catholics the Freeman's Journal is constantly pegging away at something or somebody, as if the church was intended to be, in all things, militant.

"Brethren, these things ought not to be."

In the Episcopal Church, the feud between the "high" and "low" party is culminating to fever heat.

On one side is an alleged attempt to break down the barriers which at present keep the ministers of other denominations from officiating in Episcopal pulpits. During the summer church vacation in 1867, the Rev. Stephen H. Tyng, Jr., of New York City, while sojourning at the village of New Brunswick in the State of New Jersey, held service and preached in the Methodist church, when at the same time a regularly established clergyman was officiating in his own church.

A trial of the Rev. Mr. Tyng before a court of twelve chosen Presbyters is set down for the 10th of January, and judging from present indications, it will be the occasion of even greater feeling among Episcopalians than was stirred up by the memorable trial of Bishop Onderdonk. Almost all the Bishops, Priests and Laymen, (and the women, of course) in that church, have taken sides upon the question.

On the other hand, among the tip toe High Church party, there has been during the past year, a new Chapel opened, called "Saint Albans," to which to jammed and crowded houses, three times a day every Sunday, masses, services, and the vespers are given with altar candles burning, with vestments, with genu-flexions and adorations almost equal to any Catholic Church.

Of the approaching trial, a writer in the Episcopalian says:

> If there must be trials for preaching to men, as Christ and the Apostles preached—outside of Ecclesiastical editions—let there be trials also for converting professedly Protestant Episcopal mass houses, or, if it be unlawful to admit a Presbyterian or a Methodist Minister into our communion, let it also be tested, by the doctors of the canon law, whether it be lawful to elevate the sacrament, have midnight masses, afternoon vespers, blazing altar lights, embroidered stoles, priests and acolytes crossing themselves at certain portions of the service, the ringing of bells within the chancel, to say nothing of the turning over of our chapels, with the bishop's consent, to priests of the Greek Church, for the celebration of the Greek mass. As there must come a time when these things must be forced to settlement, if the Church is to have peace, the matter may as well be taken in hand now, as at any future time, and hence we would suggest that as soon as "the Ecclesiastical authority" has disposed of the case of Rev. Mr. Tyng, it proceed with equal zeal to a judicial inquiry into the agencies above enumerated, so as to make it manifest, not only to the parties offending, but to all men who profess to have the peace and welfare of the Savior's kingdom at heart, that this Protestant Episcopal Church of ours is, and intends to continue to be, as its name implies, really and in good faith, Protestant, with nothing in it savoring of Popery on the one hand, nor of an Idolatrous Orientalism on the other.

The Churchman, another Episcopal organ says of a "declaration" set forth by the Low Church party, and of the efforts of the High Church party to depose Dr. Tyng:

> The only means by which this can be done is, ecclesiastical persecution and proscription. This has been frequently threatened. It is now begun to be inflicted. They have selected as the offence to be dealt with, the crime of preaching the Gospel in a Methodist Church in a town where there are two Episcopal Churches, without the consent of their Rectors. They have selected as the offender, not one of our older evangelical clergy, [illegible] over powerful and thoroughly established parishes, all of whom have repeatedly committed the same alleged offence. But they have singled out a young man eminently devoted to his Master's work in the very midst of missionary enterprises, in this city, of the most extensive and successful character, struggling heroically with difficulties incident to the establishment of a Parish on the largest scale of efficiency, and cheerfully lending himself to every worthy undertaking. In the midst of all this he is subjected to the disgrace of an ecclesiastical trial—insulted by the obscene and unwholesome character of the place to which he is summoned, and outraged by the appointment of a court, pledged by its antecedents on this question. Prosecutions for acts of fellowship with non-Episcopal ministers are to follow.

The Churchman announces its determination to vindicate its threatened liberties.

On the other hand, a correspondent of the High Church party takes up the anti-Tyng side of the question.

> "Your readers are gravely informed that 'the prosecution of Rev. S. H. Tyng, Jr., for preaching in a Methodist Church at New Brunswick, against the will of an Episcopal rector of that place, is causing much division among high and low church.' Some truth in the latter clause of the above there may be, but the first clause is not the whole truth, to say the least. Mr. Tyng is proceeded against, under the rules of the church which he has sworn to obey; and for the violation of a canon of the church (made as much for Mr. Tyng's protection in his own place as for any one else's), and which orders 'that no minister of the church shall officiate in the parochial cure of another clergyman without his express permission.' And Mr. Tyng has [illegible] as follows, when he was made a priest: 'That he will reverently obey his bishop and other ministers who, according to the canons of this church, may have the charge and government over them.'"

Our Methodist brethren are not all idle "lookers-on here in Vienna." The Methodist is gratified to see that so many evangelical ministers and laymen in the Episcopal Church are not blind to the danger which threatens them. It says the "declaration" takes a bold stand and utters no uncertain sound, and adds,

> "They will never separate from the principles which they have so forcibly set forth. And it will cheer them in their struggle to know that the whole Protestant world looks upon the progress and prospects of their struggle with intense interest and sympathy."

Upon the question of a re-union of the Methodist Church South with the Methodist Church proper, which some Godly-minded and charitable members on both sides are striving to bring about, one who is high in authority among the South[illegible] brethren writes:

> "Let Northern Methodists repent of the wrongs they have done us; let them [illegible] their [illegible] of the living and the dead; let them [illegible] they have taken from us; let them [illegible] their [illegible] movements in our territory; let them abrogate all their political tests of membership, and let them in their general conference propose to us terms of union or [illegible], and we hazard nothing in saying that our general conference—the only body that can act in the premises—will give them a candid and courteous [illegible]"

Commenting on this, a Northern brother editor adds in the following tart style:

> "This is very [illegible] and sweet as [illegible] as if Jeff. Davis were to make the offer, that if the United States would engage never to make mention of the rebellion; restore all the property which the Southern people lost by attempting to overthrow our government; agree to re-establish slavery; abolish the oaths of taking office; and propose generous terms of Union, he would advise the Southern people to consider them. Truly, modesty is not likely to become an obsolete virtue, with such examples before the world."

Under the head of "Dead Christians," the last number of the Methodist says about the cold or lukewarm members of the churches:

> "When men die, solemn services are held, tears are shed, the chambers are darkened, black garments are worn, and every demonstration of grief are made. If funeral customs were observed for dead believers, how many churches would be draped with mourning, how solemn the dirges, how copious the tears, how unutterable the sorrow!"

The Methodists of the United States, counting all branches, now number two millions of communicants, embracing in their congregations nearly eighty millions of our population, or about one-fifth of the whole American people. Within the last year they are reported to have raised $7,000,000 in their Centennial fund. Certainly they show their faith by their works in this respect. On the day of the Centennial Anniversary in this city, of the establishment of Methodism in America, there were nearly two millions subscribed, of which sum five hundred thousand dollars was given by one person Daniel Drew, Esq., probably the richest member of that church in our country. And yet all of this large gift Mr. Drew may have made in a month, perhaps a week, down among the stock and gold gamblers, speculating in "Erie," "Central," "North Western Common," "Rock Island," "Pacific Mail," "Harlem," "Toledo" or "Old Southern." He is one of the big "bulls" or "bears" of Wall Street, and it is reported, that once "in a corner," he settled up his "shorts" with Vanderbilt by giving his check for $360,000. It has come to be almost proverbial, that among Methodist ministers are found our best collectors as well as our most earnest speakers; we write it in all sincerity, because we count it a high compliment to their virtue; that other proverbial remark about "chickens roosting high when they are on the circuit," we never did believe.

Here is what the Christian Advocate says about the ballet and its dancers, which have of late created such a furor in New York, the "Black Crook" closing a long run of four hundred and seventy-five performances, with receipts amounting to $760,000, and the "Devil's Auction," drawing crowded houses of the fashion and elite of the city:

> Gathered from the streets of Paris, the purlieus of London, and the casinos of Vienna, of Florence, and of Berlin, to say nothing of the glittering saloons of American infancy, they are brought together upon the stage to teach gracefulness of movement, artistic vocalization, and appreciation of the beautiful to the wives and daughters, the husbands and sons, of a nation whose very existence is conditioned on the sternest morality and the conservation of the purest social relations. What a burlesque on common sense! What an outrage to intelligent Christianity!

The New York Observer (High Old Presbyterian) has been studying the difficulties in the life of a dancing girl, and gives the following "tricks of the trade:"

> "The lady promises "to do everything within her knowledge and ability to promote the interests" of those employing her. In case of sickness, however, she can draw her salary for only eight days. She is required to furnish all minor articles of dress at her own expense; and she must not leave the city, "nor shall she frequent such entertainments and rural fetes as may tend to injure her health, causing disappointment by her non-appearance on the boards." "She shall not refuse to wear masks, paint her face, and make up to suit the managers in accordance with the role assumed, nor to descend through the stage by means of trap doors, not to ascend by machinery, trap ladders, and wings; but she is "allowed to test beforehand the safety and solidity of the mechanical apparatus and appliances which she may have to make use of." In other theaters, perhaps, they compel their "angels" to ascend in clouds of blue fire by ropes that have never before been hooked into the back of women.
>
> And, finally, the employers of this fugitive dancer "reserve to themselves the right at any time to use the name of any artist belonging to the company, for the purpose of giving benefit performances under her name; and the said artist shall not be entitled to make any claim or demand for extra compensation on this score." Therefore, when you see on the glaring placards the announcement of a "benefit," you will remember that the benefit is not for the person under whose name it is announced, but for the crafty manager who takes in the thousands every night.

The question of church music, or "Inspired psalmody versus Holy Opera," is just now creating a most serious agitation, more especially among our Congregational and Presbyterian [illegible]. The Stanton Case.

The report of the Senate Committee on the President's message concerning the suspension of [illegible] Stanton, makes a strong case in favor of that officer, and is, in fact, a complete vindication of his course. Every allegation made by [illegible] the single one that Stanton [illegible] the Tenure of Office Act [illegible]. It is a small matter that Stanton's opinion should have differed from that of others on this question before the act was passed. He has always held, and has always acted on the [illegible] that when Congress has passed a law, no matter what his legal opinions may have been [illegible] to it, while the measure was pending before that body, it is the business of the President and his [illegible] to execute that law, and leave the question of its validity to the judicial [illegible] where it properly belongs. Johnson [illegible] Stanton's opinion about the act, given before it [illegible] law, to justify his own course in [illegible] it at all after its passage; a proceeding [illegible] indefensible. Such a theory would make the veto power of the President ab[illegible] as it would give him the right to deny the validity of all acts passed over the [illegible], and refuse to enforce them. A law passed over the veto is as much a law as any other, and it is not the province of the President or any [illegible] of the Cabinet to declare it null and re[illegible]. The Committee admit that [illegible] the Tenure of Office Act [illegible] and was opposed to its becoming [illegible] was really his view, and some of the [illegible] of the country have held the [illegible] but others equally able have held [illegible], and among them, Mr. Webster. [illegible] is as old as the Govern[illegible] does not [illegible] a public [illegible] of such an opinion of a pro[illegible] he is to carry his notions so far as [illegible] vested into a [illegible] vote of each H[illegible]." This [illegible] no room for controversy [illegible] has nothing to gain by [illegible] for the removal of [illegible] the responsibil[illegible] that officer. [illegible] had withheld from him [illegible], had it been promptly put in [illegible] him to pre[illegible]. The [illegible] and by [illegible] the position [illegible] of [illegible] that he knew he [illegible] Stanton [illegible] the [illegible] Governor [illegible] the 27th [illegible] that a body of [illegible] New Orleans; [illegible] the grand jury, but [illegible] and this question was asked; [illegible] was asked at a time when [illegible] in the full exercise of their [illegible] sent by telegraph on [illegible] The military [illegible] had not interfere with [illegible] of the Convention." [illegible] which Stanton received. [illegible] with the sanction [illegible] it up by arresting [illegible] as it has on the sub[illegible] that I could not [illegible] without in[illegible] from the President. Please [illegible] by telegraph. [illegible] that the two dispatches [illegible] was [illegible] will be made to [illegible] that this would lead [illegible] the riot could only be prevent[illegible]. Yet he telegraphed [illegible] but on the [illegible] sent a [illegible] to use [illegible] Stanton knew no [illegible] ability [illegible] shown in [illegible] himself is re[illegible] and that he has en[illegible] of it by the criminal [illegible] the blood of those [illegible] the Secretary of War. [illegible] but properly, re[illegible]'s denial that he was [illegible] the [illegible] protested and in[illegible] of the case, admits of but one [illegible] that it is untrue, and known to [illegible] of [illegible] of the [illegible] but [illegible] of clear mind and [illegible] who have been able to [illegible] in the defense of the Confederates, con[illegible] the [illegible] by [illegible] of Con[illegible] and [illegible] The [illegible] which Con[illegible] with the unrest [illegible] especially [illegible] to this class [illegible] to the public that [illegible] on this subject. These [illegible] their mis[illegible] and contradic[illegible] To adapt the words of a great [illegible] is exha[illegible]; [illegible] but ob[illegible] is not yet conquered." One effort [illegible] the form of [illegible] argument, and even [illegible] upon it. We al[illegible] his late manifesto [illegible] whole gist of these charges [illegible] last Congress. In speaking of the [illegible] case in connection with this [illegible] says: "I do not see any parallel be[illegible] the charter government of Rhode [illegible] to recognize the only existing [illegible] in one-third of the States of this Union." This, we say, is the whole [illegible] of the charges against Congress. That [illegible] the [illegible] States in the South. It is small[illegible] with the [illegible] and [illegible] of the Confederate Democracy. The [illegible] of the "usurpation of power" consists in its [illegible] to confer a monopoly of rights and privileges in the South on unrepentant traitors. The "civil governments" which they have been so exceedingly anxious to have Congress recognize, were [illegible] by Johnson; and the "grievous [illegible]" which Wait and his party [illegible] amount to this: that Congress will not permit the Executive to authorize the formation of State governments, to dictate their Constitutions and to insist on their recognition or admission into the Union without allowing Congress its rightful discretion in the matter. In 1866, Johnson announced that he had fully reorganized and reconstructed the rebellious States, and that nothing remained for Congress to do but to pass upon the naked questions of the regularity of the elections and the qualifications of the members chosen to the respective Houses. This proceeding took out of the hands of Congress all right to inquire into the character of those governments, and because that body insisted on its constitutional right in this regard, it is pronounced guilty of "usurpation." This is the whole accusation against that body. Nothing else is urged or pretended.

The Willow Creek Mines.

FULL DESCRIPTION OF THE COUNTRY AND ITS PROSPECTS—AN EXTENSIVE CAMP BUT DEFICIENT IN WATER.

WILLOW CREEK, BAKER CO., OGN.,
Jan. 28th, 1868.

EDITOR OREGONIAN:

Willow Creek is a branch of the Malheur, having its source near the head of John Day's river, and flowing near one hundred miles in an easterly direction, discharges its waters into the Malheur about fifteen miles above its junction with Snake river. Although a long stream, Willow creek, owing to the nature of the country through which it flows, much of it being a low mountain or hill country, destitute of timber, receives but few tributaries, and those few of small size. It is but a small stream in proportion to its length, and its surroundings are gloomy enough and differs but little from those of the Malheur, Owyhee and other tributaries, on the south side of Snake river, between "Farewell Bend" and old Fort Hall.

The mines on the tributaries of Willow creek were, I believe, first discovered in 1862, at what is known as "Mormon" or "Humboldt Basin," nearly at the same time, by one party from Salt Lake and another from the Humboldt mining region in Nevada. This is a small but rich camp, and only lacks plenty of water to render it one of the richest in the upper country. But water it can never have from any outside source, as the basin is higher than the source of any of the streams around it, so that the miners in that locality will have to be content with the scanty supply they now have for three or four months in the year.

But what are known as the Willow creek mines are situated on the south slope of the divide, between the waters of Willow creek and Burnt river and are now divided into Shasta, Easton and Willow Creek Districts.

Shasta district comprises Shasta creek, Rich creek, Cottonwood creek, Quartz Gulch and many others. Mining has been carried on to some extent on Shasta creek for several years, but it was not until last summer that the district was prospected to any extent or assumed any importance as a mining camp, or became known as such outside of its immediate vicinity. Since then, greatly exaggerated reports have gained circulation in Idaho, Oregon and California, &c., as to the richness and extent of the mines. In most of the creeks and gulches in Shasta district good prospects have been obtained of rather coarse gold, mostly on the bed rock, which is usually of slate, and generally from ten to twenty-five feet below the surface. Shasta, like most of mining districts, contain an embryo town which rejoices in the name of Eldorado City, indifferently supplied with everything but whisky.

Easton district was organized last summer and is situate east of and joining Shasta district. It contains a large number of gulches, some of which were worked during last summer, paying very well. Good prospects have been obtained in many others and if water were plenty it would be a lively camp next season and continue so for two or three years. In these districts the gold is finer than in Shasta district and the bed rock (if rock it can be called) is a kind of cement of clay and gravel.

Willow creek district has recently organized and comprises the lower part of Mormon Basin creek and a number of gulches east of it, but gold in paying quantities has only been found in one of them. This district is immediately east of Easton district, and the mines are of the same character. These districts are all on the north side of Willow creek and are comprised in a space of about twelve miles in length and but little over one in width.

Water is very scarce in all the mines in this vicinity. During the spring the melting snow furnishes a good many gulches with water for two or three months. After that is gone, all the natural water in Shasta district would not amount to more than one sluice head, in Easton district, including the water in Mormon Basin creek, about two, in Willow creek district about one. And in speaking of creeks in those districts the reader must bear in mind that all the gulches in which water flows during summer, (no matter how small the quantity) is called a creek. Most of the gulches are dry during the fall and winter and a prospector frequently has to carry dirt one half mile or more to find water to wash it. Another great inconvenience here is the scarcity of timber, it being on the mountains and in canyons remote from the mines. Lumber for mining and building purposes has to be hauled from eight to sixteen miles, and fire wood from two five miles, the former costing about seventy dollars per thousand feet, and the latter from twelve to fourteen dollars per cord.

The climate here is similar to that of the Grand Ronde and Powder River valleys, the amount of snow falling being much less than in the mining regions of Idaho. Yet the winters are very cold. The past two weeks have been about as cold as any weather I ever saw during several years residence in the mountains. The snow is now about ten inches deep in the mines, and perhaps two feet deep on the divide between Willow creek and Burnt river.

There is much good agricultural land along Willow creek, Burnt river and other streams in this vicinity, upon which abundant supplies could be raised for all this part of Oregon, unless the crickets, which seem to be one of the natural productions of the country, should claim too large a per centage of the crop.

Several different ditches have been talked of for bringing water from Willow creek and Burnt river for mining purposes, which would supply Shasta district and subsequently districts east of that, only one of which has been prosecuted to any extent; that being the ditch of Carter, Packwood & Co., which is one of large extent and will, when completed, supply a large extent of mining ground with water and give employment to many men. But unfortunately there is little probability of its completion in time to do any good next season; so that many owning claims will have to wait another year before they can work them to any extent, as the mines are of such a nature that they can only be worked by the hydraulic or ground sluice, which requires a large amount of water.

There is a large extent of unprospected country in this part of Oregon, in much of which it is probable gold may be found. Were the facilities better for working the mines, this would soon be a populous portion of the State, but much of the country is destitute of timber and water.

There is but little to induce men to come here at present, but if any do come from Oregon and California, they had best not come before the first of May, as before that time the weather will be stormy and unsettled, and they will find it rough camping out in a country where even sage brush for fuel is not very plenty.

There are a few stores in the country, at Clark's creek, Mormon Basin and other camps, but they are poorly furnished with mining tools, clothing, groceries, and in fact everything but whisky and other beverages of like nature, which are supposed to be necessary in a country where water is not very plenty. Our nearest post office is at Express, nearly 20 miles. We get our mail matter from there or from Auburn, which is upwards of thirty-five miles distant. A mail route which would accommodate Clark's creek, Mormon Basin and the Willow mines is very necessary, and should receive the attention of our postal authorities.

Politics, or rather the "loaves and fishes," are beginning to attract some attention here, as the time approaches for a new distribution of the various county offices, and from the numerous candidates in the field, all willing to serve the public, one would suppose the positions were lucrative and chances in the election nearly equal. Q.

A letter from Washington to the editor of the Evening Post, written by a careful and well-informed man, says that the friends of Gen. Grant are apprehensive that he may be assassinated by the desperate villains, the sympathizers, if not the accomplices, of Booth, who fear him as the next President of the United States. The General himself displays no anxiety, but those about him are unremitting in their watchfulness over his person.

The proceeds of the first day's sale of tickets to Dickens' readings in Philadelphia, amounted to $13,000, and about 1,000 of the 1,200 tickets were in the hands of people who would use them. The speculators were present in full force, but were able to secure only about two hundred tickets.

[DISPATCHED TO THE OREGONIAN.]

DATES TO FEBRUARY 10.

Southern Conventions.

RALEIGH, Feb. 7.—The Convention has adopted a report in favor of applying to Congress for the removal of disabilities from all persons who supported the Congressional policy of reconstruction, and has rejected the resolution making negroes, or persons unable to read and write, ineligible to the office of Governor.

TALLAHASSEE, Feb. 8.—The minority convention held three sessions to-day in secret. Five more signed the constitution. Many signed reluctantly, believing they had been proceeding regardless of law. The convention nominated a full ticket of State officers, part of them colored. A large meeting of negroes, to the number of fifteen hundred, was held to-day in favor of the minority convention. A colored delegate made a speech demanding the hanging of the majority delegates. Some in the crowd cried burn them. The portion claiming to be the majority will probably assemble on Monday.

Alabama Constitution.

NEW YORK, Feb. 10.—The Tribune's special from Atlanta says the result of the Alabama election is uncertain. The system of proscription and terrorism greatly reduced the white vote. The newspapers promise to print a black list of the names and places of business of all whites voting for the Constitution. Success depends upon the vote of the northern portion of the State. In some counties no election was held, loyal voters being frightened off by threats. Gen. Meade will probably order a special election in those counties.

Miscellaneous.

Advices from St. Domingo represent that a provisional triumvirate has been proclaimed, composed of Gomez, Barcento and Lucano. Their power lasts until the return of Baez.

Advices from Hayti say, The French clergy excommunicated Salnave on the ground that he has established a sort of Fetish religion.

The British Government refused to recall the British Legation at the demand of Salnave.

HAVANA, Feb. 10.—A special says the powder supposed to be for Mexico has been stopped.

A subsidy of $2,000 per month has been granted the Spanish mail steamer plying between Havana and Vera Cruz.

Advices from Caracas, Venezuela, are to the 3d inst. The insurrectionary troubles in Arago are diminishing. Gen. Miguel Gil, commander of the national forces and Minister of War, was killed in Lagudes. Gen. Cardenas revolted but was killed. Falcon has announced a new Cabinet.

Panama letters of February 1st state that Guatemala dates contain an official denial that war with Mexico was imminent. Additional advices from Peru have been received. Canseco was on route to the Capital with his victorious army. He lost a hundred men by an explosion of the Padus powder magazine.

MONTGOMERY, Feb. 10.—A dispatch from North Alabama says that section has gone against the Constitution.

The vote in the heavy negro counties gives eleven thousand against the Constitution. The white vote thus far reported does not reach one hundred and fifty in the whole State.

CHICAGO, Feb. 10.—The weather is intensely cold. The thermometer was 40 degrees below zero at St. Paul.

Mexican News.

GALVESTON, Feb. 8.—The Bureau of Mexican Intelligence at Brownsville sends the following news:

Another revolution has broken out under Vanza. A detachment of government troops have been routed by the revolutionists. An expedition from the northern part of the State of Tobasco started under Bostia to march on the capital.

Mendez is reported to be Prime Minister.

Gen. Sanchez Ochoa, a partisan of Ortega, has been arrested and imprisoned at San Luis.

A movement is on foot at Vera Cruz to detach several villages from that State and form a new one. From all parts of the interior come reports of robberies, kidnapping and murders.

Francisco Palacico has been elected governor of Queretaro.

Carvital and Canales are organizing near Tuxtlipitas, preparatory for revolution. Their agents are in Brownsville purchasing arms and munitions of war. Troops have been sent from Matamoras to fight them wherever found.

An expedition under Felix Polgalo, started to invade Jalapa, but failed. Cortinas threatens revolution in San Juan.

South America.

NEW YORK, Feb. 9.—The Rising Star has arrived from the Isthmus. The Central American news is unimportant. Lima advices to January 22d say President Canseco had arrived at Callao and would proceed to the Capital, where he would receive a cordial reception. Some minor fights had occurred in the south, but tranquility has been restored. The whole republic now recognizes the government of Canseco.

Valparaiso dates are to January 10th. Agents will travel in March next to Great Britain, etc., to obtain immigrants for the northern portion of Chile. Salt works on a large scale are soon to be established near Valparaiso.

The Japanese monitor Stonewall arrived at Valparaiso on January 6th, thirty-six days from Montevideo.

European News.

NEW YORK, Feb. 9.—The Herald's cable dispatch says: Napoleon has altered his policy toward the Pope and Italy in a sudden and remarkable manner. He evinces a disposition to abandon the position of champion of the Holy See. He is assured, it is said, of the existence of Bourbon intrigues radiating from Rome. The Imperial relations with Rome thereupon became colder, while the friendly relations hitherto existing with Victor Emmanuel will be renewed.

Queen Isabella has been forced to dissolve the Papal Legion, recruited under her warrant in Madrid, as Napoleon flatly objects to their service in the cause of the Holy See.

Admiral Farragut remains at Florence, a much honored visitor.

NEW YORK, Feb. 9.—Advices from Abyssinia state that a strong force of British troops advanced from Senafe towards the interior on the 26th of January. Water had been bored for according to the American plan and found in abundance near the English line of march on the coast shore, and has been lightered by the English for naval purposes.

BY ATLANTIC CABLE.

LONDON, Feb. 9.—Selwyn will succeed Sir William Earle, as Chief Justice of the Court of Common Pleas.

It is understood that Minister Adams will leave England in April.

The Fenian Capt. Mackey, arrested on Friday, is charged with leading the assault on the Martello Tower, Duncannon.

PARIS, Feb. 9.—The amendment proposed to the Press bill, allowing trial by jury for all offences of the press, was lost after a heated debate.

The French Government has consented to expel the American refugees in France.

FLORENCE, Feb. 9.—The Farragut fleet, during its stay in Italy, will be stationed at and along the coast between Genoa and Civitia Vecchia.

BERLIN, Feb. 9.—At a recent interview, Bismarck told Carl Schurz that it was the most earnest desire of the King of Prussia to cultivate the good will of the people of the United States. This favorable disposition is regarded by Americans as most important, in view of the possibility of a necessity for the selection of some foreign Power as umpire between the United States and England, in the pending differences.

LONDON, Feb. 10.—The feeling of uneasiness created by the threatening appearance in northern Turkey has greatly subsided. The reports of the troubles on the Danube were greatly exaggerated.

OUR SAN FRANCISCO DISPATCH.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 9.—A majority of the members of the Legislature came down from Sacramento yesterday and left for San Jose. This morning the citizens of San Jose are making preparations to entertain three hundred guests.

The Dispatch, started as a Working man's-Union organ, has been swinging round the circle gradually, of late, and now comes out as an organ of the Democracy, under the editorial control of Volney E. Howard.

Last evening the friends of Mr. James E. Putman, ex-Chief of the Fire Department, presented him with a splendid watch and chain, upon the occasion of his departure for New York.

Mrs. Malinas has obtained judgment against Louis Plant for five thousand dollars damages, for injuries sustained by falling in a dark hall, in defendant's house, where she was boarding.

Gold closed in New York yesterday at 142½. Flour unchanged. Liverpool wheat market closed at 156.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 10.—The Montana for Panama to-day took 386 passengers and $105,781 in treasure.

The members of the Legislature who visited San Jose yesterday had a splendid time. They were received with the greatest hospitality by the San Jose people, and were not allowed to pay a cent at the hotels, livery stables and saloons.

John Shay, who was injured at Johnson's coal yard on Saturday, died this afternoon.

A petition is being circulated and numerously signed by the attorneys and others of this city, asking the Legislature to transfer the Supreme Court from Sacramento to this place.

Mike O'Neil was arrested for biting a man's lip off.

On Saturday afternoon, Nathaniel Hill, employed in the New Orleans warehouse, was caught under a heavy box and had his right leg, from ankle to knee, crushed in a horrible manner.

A pretty waiter girl attempted suicide by poison yesterday, but was pumped out in time to save her life. Cause, unrequited affection.

On Friday evening, James Casey, a boy about 15 years of age, stabbed another boy named Manuels in the neck; wound not dangerous.

Mrs. Sullivan was arrested to-day upon charge of shop-lifting.

Monetary.

Gold opened at 142¾ and advanced to 143¼ at noon.

Markets.

General markets unchanged. Liverpool wheat market 15s 5d. Stocks active at irregular prices.

Flour unchanged, prices open quiet.

Wheat—Sales of 300 sks low grade at $1 42½; 1,000 sks fair milling, $2 55; good to extra choice $2 70@2 75.

Barley—There is an improved tone to the market, with sales of 960 sks brewing, in two lots at $1 85; at the close, 150 sks feed at $1 80; 150 sks brewing, $1 85.

Oats—300 sks choice heavy at $1 90, we quote the extremes at $1 75@1 90.

Shipping.

Arrived—British bark, Blackwatch, 125 days from Liverpool; schooner Porpoise, 44 days from Tahiti; bark Speedwell, 116 days from Malaga.

The La Crosse Democrat states the following: "It may not be generally known, but it is a fact nevertheless, that in 1861, the same pen that wrote the Chicago platform on which McClellan refused to stand, also wrote McClellan's letter accepting the nomination, and kicking the platform to pieces, in order to catch the war and anti-war Democrats."

AID FOR THE NORTHERN PACIFIC RAILROAD.—A late Washington dispatch gives the following:

Senator Howard, of Michigan, has prepared a very elaborate bill to aid in the completion of the Northern Pacific Railroad, extending from Lake Superior to Puget Sound. A charter has already been granted and a company organized for the construction of this road, but no progress has been made in the work, for the want of funds. If Senator Howard's bill should become a law, it will give an immense impetus to this enterprise, and in the course of time insure the completion of the road. The bill authorizes the Secretary of the Treasury, whenever twenty miles of the road are completed, to issue to the company six per cent. bonds to the following amounts. On that portion of the road between the eastern terminus and the 100th meridian of longitude, $16,000 per mile; between the 109th and 119th meridians (being the mountain district), $48,000 per mile; and between 119th and western terminus of the road, $32,000 per mile. To facilitate the completion of the road, it is provided that whenever a certain proportion of the work required to prepare the road for the superstructure on any section of the twenty miles between the eastern base of the Rocky Mountains and the western base of the Coast Range has been done, the company are to receive two thirds of the amount of bonds, the remaining one third to be issued when the section is fully completed. This is an improvement on the present plan of issuing bonds to the railroad companies, and will place the Northern Company in funds as fast as they can grade their road and before laying down the rails.

FIRST NATIONAL BANK OF IDAHO—BOISE CITY, I. T.—Organized March 11th, 1867, (with circulation) under Act of Congress, approved June 3d, 1864. Authorized capital $500,000. Paid up capital $100,000. B. M. DuRell, President. C. W. Moore, Cashier. Collections of Notes and Accounts on the principal places of Idaho Territory promptly attended to. Exchange for Coin or Currency on this Bank can be purchased of Ladd & Tilton, Portland, Oregon.

UNION STATE CONVENTION.

The Union State Convention is hereby called to meet at Portland, Multnomah county, Oregon, on the 24th day of March, A. D. 1868, for the purpose of nominating a candidate for Congress, to be voted for at the ensuing June election, three Presidential Electors, Delegates to the Union National Convention, and for the transaction of such other business as may properly come before the Convention.

CHAS. DICKENS' READINGS are creating quite a sensation in the Atlantic States, the proceeds of which are so enormously large that that popular author refused the sum of Twenty-five Thousand Dollars to come to San Francisco and yet the people of Oregon continue to buy their clothing and dry-goods of the best and cheapest house in the State, which, of course, is at KOHN & FISHEL'S.

Buchtel's Photograph Gallery is the only establishment in Oregon that is thoroughly prepared to do all the different styles of work in the art. Photographs from card to life size. The new cabinet cards, &c., &c. Small pictures enlarged (retouched in India ink—painted in water-colors or oil by Mrs. S. J. Rumsey. Pictures that are fading can be reproduced in this way. All negatives taken in this gallery will be carefully preserved, and additional copies had. I have now on hand a very large collection of negatives, the names of which are recorded alphabetically in a book for that purpose that can be seen in the reception room.

SPERMATORRHŒA.

THE MUTUAL

LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY,

OF NEW YORK.

Incorporated	1842.
CASH ASSETS	$33,000,000 00
ANNUAL INCOME OVER	6,000,000 00
CASH DIVIDEND (Feb. 1, 1867)	2,124,000 78

THE MUTUAL DOES A CASH BUSINESS ONLY AND HAS NO NOTES!

What a Note Company says!

"We recommend the CASH plan as the best mode of Insurance. None will deny this after a few years' experience of the different plans."—The Charter Oak Life Insurance Co. (a Note Company.)

EXPERIENCE has taught business men that CREDITS must be paid for!

IN CASH COMPANIES—The first payment is the largest, every successive year reduces the premium or increases the policy at the option of the insured. Past records of the Mutual prove that in 15 years their payments cease, but DIVIDENDS continue for life.

IN NOTE COMPANIES—The first payment is the smallest. Interest on Notes swallow Dividends and increase the future payments.

OBSERVE—Notes must be paid for by higher rates and increased Insurance.

DIVIDENDS—The Mutual declares Dividends the first and every successive year from the date of a policy holders' insurance. N. B.—The public should ascertain from other Insurance Companies if Dividends are declared annually from the start—or annually 5 YEARS AFTER insurance.

RATES in The Mutual are lower than in any other Company doing business on the Pacific Coast—and are considerably lower than in any Note Company.

EVERY ADVANTAGE is offered by The Mutual—(excepting notes)—that other Insurance Companies can offer.

THE MUTUAL

IS THE OLDEST AND LARGEST LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY.

Medical Examiners:

R. GLISAN Esq., M. D. and R. B. WILSON, Esq., M. D.

The States of "New York and Massachusetts" provide Commissioners for the public protection, to receive and examine ALL RETURNS of business transacted BY ALL Insurance Companies. Copies of these Reports and Charts are to be seen at our office, and the public are cordially invited to inspect them for guidance and instruction.

CUPID'S PROCLAMATION.

The ice is gone the Winter's past
Valentine's time has come at last;
So if you wish to cut a shine,
Just send your love a VALENTINE.

As railroad talk is all the go,
We Portland folks will make a show;
The cars are coming—clear the line,
Or you'll get a Bond for your VALENTINE.

The locomotive's startling shriek,
You'll hear it "clean acr the creek;"
'Twill make "old fogies" howl and whine,
But we'll cure them with a VALENTINE.

We'll get the Bonds—then all we lack,
Is depots, engines and a track;
With these, we'll build a splendid line,
And pay the cost with a VALENTINE.

Circuit Court—Upton, Judge.—The February term of the Circuit Court for Multnomah county was opened yesterday morning and the following business was transacted:

The following were drawn from the general jury panel to serve as grand jurors: Isaac Williams, John Foster, Arthur Malton, James Swafford, Napoleon Kennedy, B. F. Buxton, and D. Talbot. Isaac Williams was appointed foreman.

Wm. Skinner and M. Kline were appointed bailiffs and C. B. Upton, crier.

On motion of A. C. Gibbs, Jas. W. Stevens was admitted to practice at the bar of the court, upon his certificate of admission to the bar of the District Court of the 1st Judicial District of Washington Territory.

A. R. Shipley vs. L. Rosenthal; action on promissory note; judgment by default, for $426 47 coin. Page for plaintiff.

Corbitt & Macleay vs. Chas. F. Williams & W. W. Williams; action on promissory note; judgment by default against W. W. Williams and joint property of both defendants, for $158 75, coin. Page & Stevens for plaintiffs.

George L. Hibbard vs. T. J. Quimby; judgment on report of J. F. McCoy, referee, for $847 34. Mitchell, Dolph & Smith for plaintiff; Page & Stevens for defendant.

R. B. Dufur & A. J. Dufur vs. W. Legg; action for trespass; default of defendant set aside, and leave given him to file an answer. Stout & Reed for plaintiffs; Mitchell, Dolph & Smith and Strong for defendant.

Clara A. Patterson vs. Wm. F. Patterson; suit for divorce; default of defendant declared and cause referred to J. H. Stinson to take proofs.

A. F. Hedges vs. Wm. Strong, administrator of estate of A. Holbrook; action on account; leave granted plaintiff to substitute [illegible]; demurrer to substituted complaint overruled.

Grand Lodge, I. O. G. T. North America.—We have received from some unknown source, a copy of the Journal of the 13th Annual [illegible] of the R. W. Grand Lodge of North America, I. O. G. T., held at Detroit, Michigan, May 28th, to 30th, 1867, inclusive. From its pages, it appears that credentials were presented by delegates from twenty-three States and three of the British provinces. Wm. M. Payne of Portland, [illegible] Oregon. The [illegible] of the Right Worthy Grand Templar shows that the membership of the Order had increased from 58,000 in 1865, to 304,438 on the 1st day of February, 1867, as shown by the reports of G. W. Secretaries. Five Grand Lodges had been organized during the previous year. Applications were pending for charters for quite a number of other Grand Lodges, chiefly from the Southern [illegible]. The R. W. G. Secretary's report credits Oregon with 2,780 members in good standing, with 78 [illegible].

Where it Came From.—It is doubtful if one person in [illegible] knows the origin of the [illegible] appellation, "Brother Jonathan," which is so often used to personify the [illegible]. It came as follows: [illegible] colonial Governor of Connecticut, [illegible] 1785, early [illegible] of American [illegible] in 1769 to take the oath of office [illegible] for fourteen [illegible] he was a man of [illegible] "Let us hear [illegible] Brother Jonathan were the [illegible] name finally applied to [illegible].

The [illegible].—Mr. J. B. Hurd, [illegible]

[illegible] day as far as St. H[illegible] in the evening [illegible]

[illegible] bly five or six miles in the [illegible] of the river [illegible]

[illegible] Among those in attendance during the [illegible] of the grand jury and the calling of the docket, were [illegible]

[illegible] of the country by one [illegible]

Steamer Sunk.—The P. T. Co's steamer Echo, early Saturday [illegible] miles below Salem, and [illegible] from the [illegible] a portion of the [illegible] to guard being out of water [illegible] in the certainty of getting her [illegible] again in a few days.

Register [illegible] short time [illegible] nominated W. Lair Hill of this city to the office of Register [illegible]

A that an [illegible] that the Senate would confirm the [illegible] nominated to that office [illegible] the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court and the [illegible] Judge Deady received notice from Chief [illegible] of Mr. Hill to the office of Register.

The [illegible] since the closing of the rivers by ice, [illegible] Saturday [illegible] engineer [illegible] machinery an overhauling [illegible] some worn [illegible] and putting everything in [illegible] good repair. The steamer's freight deck has received a new floor, and upon the whole, she will come out [illegible] as good as new, when navigation shall be [illegible]. An [illegible] of her boilers and hull will take place [illegible].

P[illegible].—Hon. J. R. Wyche, Hon. J. W. [illegible] of Olympia [illegible] Horton and J. M. [illegible] of Walla Walla [illegible] of Fort Colville; Dr. S. Whitt [illegible] and Rev. L. D. Driver arrived from St. Helens [illegible] on the [illegible]. They left at Freeport, Hons. J. M. Van Syckle, W. H. Newell and Elisha Ping of Walla Walla, and Hon Wm. Taylor of Olympia, who [illegible] to remain there until the river [illegible]. It is rather rough on some of [illegible], as they are [illegible].

City Directory.—The sixth annual Directory of the City of Portland, by S. J. McCormick, [illegible] and [illegible], is nearly ready to be issued. It is a book of one hundred and twenty [illegible], containing a much greater [illegible] and valuable statistical matter than any of its former issues. We [illegible] yesterday morning [illegible] from [illegible] pages. Mr. Bushwiler, the canvassing agent, will begin the distribution to subscribers as soon as the binding can be completed.

Correction.—The Oregon City Enterprise says: "In our last issue we stated that Rev. T. L. Elliot of Portland, had been selected by the committee having charge of the course of lectures to be delivered for the benefit of the Odd Fellow's Building Fund in this city, on the 18th of March. This was an error. The lecture will be delivered on the evening of the 18th inst.—one week from Tuesday next. The subject will be "S[illegible] and Sentiment."

Lost.—On Monday, the uppers of a [illegible] pairs of slippers, were lost somewhere between the Catholic school and the shop of [illegible] Kast & Cabello. They were of blue cloth and worked with silver braid—intended for the fair at Oro Fino Hall on the 13th. Any person finding them will confer a favor by leaving them at the store of Messrs. Kast & Cabello.

The White House.—We learn that a contract has been let by the new proprietors of the "White H[illegible]" to clear off and beautify about thirty acres of ground [illegible]. It is their intention to convert [illegible] into a first-class and [illegible] place of [illegible] for [illegible] or Winter.

[illegible] City.—Mr. O. P. [illegible] of this city, will [illegible] this evening at Oregon City, on the subject: "The Inhabitants of Ancient Worlds." This will be one of the lectures in the regular course for the benefit of the Odd Fellow's [illegible].

Produce.—Arrived per steamer Alert from Oregon yesterday, 2,415 qr sks flour, 372 bags wheat, 351 sks oats, 100 sks middlings, 81 boxes apples, 11 cases pork, 5 gunnies bacon, 14 hlf bbls and boxes eggs, and 1 dressed hog.

The Dayton Flouring Mill.—The news from Dayton is to the effect that Mr. Brown's mill is running constantly and that the proprietor has between three [illegible] and four thousand barrels of flour awaiting shipment.

Olympic Theater.—This place of amusement was opened last evening and though, through hurry, the troupe was not really prepared to appear, they rendered a very creditable performance. To-night an entire change of programme will be presented. The troupe has talent, and with a fair chance will succeed.

Mail for the Dalles.—The mails for the Dalles and points above, will close at 9 o'clock this evening. Mr. Blakeney, the carrier, will leave early to-morrow morning.

New Precinct.—A new precinct embracing the village of Oswego, was created last week by the county court of Clackamas county—voting place at Oswego.

Special Session.—The County Commissioners will hold a special session on Wednesday to finish up the business of the February term.

DR. C. W. COOL,
DENTIST.

THOSE WHO DESIRE FIRST-CLASS DENTAL SERVICES might do well to give him a call. He is making a NEW AND IMPROVED VULCANITE PLATE. The nature of his improvement consists in lining the entire concave surface with fine gold; it makes the plate twice as strong and one-third times thinner than the common vulcanite plate. It also prevents the acids of the mouth from roughing the plate, and from turning it black, which is a common occurrence. One half of the common vulcanite plates turn black after being in use a short time, particularly where tobacco is used for smoking. This new style of plate admits of a very fine finish on the concave or palate surface. His office is the only place where such work can be had. The improvement is his own invention, for which he has received, December 24, 1867, a patent from the United States Patent Office. He has been making this style of work for the last two and a half years, and has specimens of the work which can be seen at his office. This work has given satisfaction in every case.

OFFICE—temporarily at the private parlor of the New Columbian Hotel dec31-3ptf.

Martin Luther once thought he saw the devil in his chamber, and threw an inkstand at his head. Had they had in those days AYER'S PILLS to exorcise all the devils that come from a disordered stomach, his laughable fright would not have become a matter of history.

Dr. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters should be in the possession of everybody in the mining region. As a preventive of various dangerous diseases to which the gold seeker is liable, it has no superior. While it is quite palatable even as a beverage, it is speedy and powerful in its effects upon the system. In all cases of diarrhea, dysentery and the prevailing fevers consequent upon exposure, the Bitters will be found invaluable as a corrective. No man should enter upon the exposed camp life of a miner without being provided with Hostetter's preventive of stomach disease, nor should any of those who are now engaged in the occupation, fail to have recourse to the Bitters.—Sold by all druggists and dealers everywhere.

PERRY DAVIS' VEGETABLE PAIN KILLER.

THE UNIVERSAL REMEDY FOR INTERNAL AND EXTERNAL COMPLAINTS!

At this period there are but few of the human race unacquainted with the merits of the Pain Killer; but while some extol it as a liniment, they know but little of its power in easing pain when taken internally, while others use it internally with great success, but are equally ignorant of its healing virtues when applied externally. We therefore wish to say to all that it is equally successful whether used internally or externally, and it stands alone, unrivalled by all the great catalogue of Family Medicines, and its sale is universal and immense. The demand for it from India and other foreign countries is equal to the demand at home, and it has become known in these far off places by its merits.

[From the Cleveland Herald, Dec 4.]

We are pained to record among our obituary notices this morning, the death, in this city, yesterday afternoon, of Albert G. Greene, of Providence, R. I.

Judge Greene was widely known in his native State and throughout New England, as a man of the highest attainments in pure literature, and of [illegible] wide and varied historical knowledge. His collection of works illustrative of early New England history was very rare, and numbered many thousands of volumes. Gifted by nature with remarkable poetic taste and insight, he not [illegible] in the study of the masters of English poetry, but was himself the author of many [illegible] not unknown to fame. The well known [illegible] beginning "Old Grimes is dead, that good old man", [illegible] which have gained a national [illegible]—were among the few published effusions [illegible] that remain to us as illustrations of [illegible] wit and [illegible] of the man. In more serious strains he was equally successful, and had the cares of a laborious profession permitted him to devote himself to historical writing [illegible] can be no doubt that many a production of [illegible] value would have been the result.

For many years Judge Greene held the position [illegible] of Probate in the city of Providence, [illegible] the reputation of an authority in Probate [illegible]. He was a man of charming conversational [illegible] of a [illegible] wit, and a [illegible] fund of information. In all cor[illegible] He had the genuine antiquarian spirit [illegible] the least savor of the book-wo[illegible] the [illegible] to letters with all the grace and [illegible] of one thoroughly conversant with society. [illegible] the city of which he was so [illegible] will grieve over his loss, for [illegible] of the [illegible] in our current American litera[illegible]

[illegible] Judge Greene removed his residence [illegible] to Cleveland, and [illegible] with his son-in-law, Rev. [illegible] W. [illegible] of the Rhode Island H[illegible] of [illegible], and Mr. Samuel C. Eastman, of N. H., both married daughters of the deceased. The [illegible] services in this city will be held on [illegible] at [illegible] o'clock, after which the [illegible] to Providence, where they [illegible], and the main services of [illegible] will be held

TO THE UNFORTUNATE.

NEW REMEDIES, NEW REMEDIES

Dr. Gibbon's Dispensary,

616 KEARNEY STREET, NEAR COMMERCIAL, San Francisco. Established in 1864, for the treatment of Sexual and Seminal Diseases, such as Gonorrhea, Gleet, Stricture, Syphilis in all its forms, Seminal Weakness, Impotency, etc. Skin Diseases (of years standing) and Ulcerated Legs successfully treated.

Horrible Diseases.

How many thousands of persons, both male and female, are there who are enduring out a miserable existence from the effects of secret indulgences, or from virus absorbed into the system! Look at their pallid, emaciated and disfigured faces and their broken-down constitutions, disqualifying them for the happiness of marriage or the enjoyment of life. In this horrid situation thousands suffer until death closes the scene. Let parents, guardians friends, attend to those who are suffering with any of these horrible life-destroying maladies—see that they are cared for and cured before it be too late. Send them immediately to Doctor Gibbon, a physician who has made private disease his especial study for years, and who is certain to cure the most inveterate cases without mercury or any injurious drugs. It is important to those who are afflicted, or to those who are interested in the welfare of their friends, to be careful of the many pretended doctors who infest all cities, publishing their skill in curing all diseases in a few days, imposing upon the public by using the names of eminent physicians from Europe and other places. Be therefore careful and make strict inquiry, or you may fall into the hands of those charlatans.

Seminal Weakness.

Seminal Emissions, the consequence of self abuse. This solitary vice, or depraved sexual indulgence, is practised by the youth of both sexes to an almost unlimited extent, producing, with unerring certainty, the following train of morbid symptoms, unless combatted by scientific medical measures, viz: Sallow countenance, dark spots under the eyes, pain in the head, ringing in the ears, noise like the rustling of leaves and rattling of chariots, uneasiness about the loins, weakness of the limbs, confused vision, blunted intellect, loss of confidence, diffidence in approaching strangers, a dislike to form new acquaintances, a disposition to shun society, loss of memory, hectic flushes, pimples and various eruptions about the face, furred tongue, fetid breath, coughs, consumption night sweats, monomania and frequent insanity If relief be not obtained, should apply immediately, either in person or by letter, and have a cure effected by his new and scientific mode of treating this disease, which never fails of effecting a quick and radical cure. Dr G will give One Hundred Dollars to any person who will prove satisfactorily to him that he was cured of this complaint by either of the San Francisco quacks

MARRIED MEN,

Or those who contemplate marriage, who are suffering under any of these fearful maladies, should not forget the sacred responsibility resting upon them nor delay to obtain immediate relief.

TO THE LADIES.

The various complicated and distressing diseases incident to females, treated with eminent success. Such as Suppressions, Irregularities, Whites, Falling of the Womb, Tumors, all Urinary Diseases, Nervous Debility, Painful or Difficult Menstruation, Barrenness, etc., will be speedily cured, without poisonous drugs injurious or unpalatable medicines of any kind. Have no delicacy in calling, no difference what your troubles may be. The afflicted are cordially invited to call and satisfy themselves.

Persons calling at Dr. Gibbon's office or sending for packages of medicines, may rely upon his assurances of confidential secrecy with implicit faith, and expect no more than to be charged with, a fair, and mutually satisfactory remuneration for services rendered, considering the circumstances and difficulties of cases, rather than a too prevalent and selfish practice of extortion among quacks and pretenders.

DOCTOR GIBBON is responsible, and will give to each patient a written instrument, binding himself to effect a radical and permanent cure, or make no charge.

CURED AT HOME.

Persons at a distance may be CURED AT HOME, by addressing a letter to Dr Gibbon, stating case, symptoms, length of time the disease has continued, and have medicines promptly forwarded free from damage and curiosity, to any part of the country, with full and plain directions for use, for Ten Dollars, sent in registered letter or through Wells, Fargo & Co

Address DR. J. F. GIBBON, 616 Kearney street, corner Commercial, San Francisco Post Office Box 252.

CARD.

DR. BARLOW J. SMITH'S WATER CURE AND Phrenological Institute, 627 Sacramento Street, San Francisco This is the only Regular Water Cure in Francisco, where all curable diseases are treated without drugs. Dr. Smith was the first to establish a water cure on this coast, based upon the theory and practice of the New York Hydropathic College.

We have a truly healthful boarding place for men, women and children, and our prices are moderate.

The Phrenological organs plainly indicate the diseases to which any person, male or female, is predisposed.

Put this card in your hat, and when you come to San Francisco, call on Dr. Smith. He will give you consultation and a phrenological examination in regard to health. It will cost you nothing and may save you months and years of ill health and "bad luck."

Dr. Smith gives free lectures to gentlemen every Friday evening, on subjects pertaining to health, at his Phrenological Hall, 627 Sacramento Street.

HIRAM SMITH'S

Ophthalmic Panacea!

IN BRINGING THE ABOVE-NAMED NEW REMEDY to the notice of the Public, the Proprietor begs to state a few facts in relation to it, as follows:

It originated in Prussia, where the science of Medicine is so thoroughly taught and practised, but owing to the poverty of its discoverer its wonderful properties were not known beyond the limited circle of his acquaintance, in which, however, it proved itself absolutely infallible in eradicating disease from the eyes

He immigrated to this country, bringing his discovery with him, but seems to have been indifferent to the propriety of giving it general and wide-spread circulation, and, as previously in his native country, seemed only desirous of using it among his friends and neighbors.

The present proprietor was one of those neighbors, and for many years was a witness to its wonderful efficacy, and, after ineffectual efforts to persuade the inventor to more widely disseminate the knowledge of its virtues, finally became himself the possessor of the secret of its preparation.

And now, while he does not deny that he hopes and expects to make money by its sale, he must yet lay claim to a desire to benefit his fellows by presenting to them a remedy which does and will cure where medical science and all experience have failed.

He wishes it to be understood that it will cure all diseases of the eye, whether of recent or long standing; but its greatest power is exhibited when it is applied to old Chronic Cases of long standing, which have resisted every other attempt to cure them, and which have been given up as hopeless and past being cured or relieved.

He asks those afflicted in this way to give it a trial, and so confident is he of its success that he instructs all his agents TO REFUND THE MONEY IF IT FAILS TO CURE.

It has, within the past year, cured cases of GRANULATED LIDS, INFLAMMATION, &c., of FIVE, SIX, NINE, FIFTEEN and SEVENTEEN YEARS STANDING evidence of which fact is furnished in the testimony of the following persons, living at and in the neighborhood of Harrisburg, Linn county

ALEXANDER L WALKER was cured of inflamed eyes, of nine years standing Had been treated by eminent physicians during all that time without effect.

Mrs MONTGOMERY, of Harrisburg, had inflamed eyes for over two years For one year they were so bad that she could not work. Was finally completely cured by the Ophthalmic Panacea.

E. B. MOORE, of the firm of Moore, Garst & Baber, of Harrisburg, had granulated lids for six years

NATHANIEL BELL, of Clackamas county, had inflamed eyes—a bad case—for over fifteen years

ROBERT RAMPEY and W D PORTER, of Harrisburg, JOHN M. HOLLOWAY, of Linn County; G R WARD, of Lane County, were all afflicted, more or less severely, with diseased eyes, and were cured by the Ophthalmic Panacea

All the above named persons have given lengthy testimonials to the facts as above stated, which may be seen at the proprietor's office in Harrisburg

REDINGTON & CO'S

ESSENCE OF

JAMAICA GINGER

This valuable preparation, containing, in a highly concentrated form, all the properties of the Jamaica Ginger, has become one of the most popular domestic remedies for all diseases of the stomach and digestive organs

As a tonic, it will be found invaluable to all persons recovering from debility, whether produced by fever or otherwise, for while it imparts to the system all the glow and vigor that can be produced by wine or brandy, it is entirely free from the reactionary efforts that follow the use of spirits of any kind.

It is also an excellent remedy for females who suffer from difficult menstruation, giving almost immediate relief to the spasms that so frequently accompany that period

It gives immediate relief to Nausea, caused by riding in a railroad car, or by sea-sickness, or other causes. It is also valuable as an external application for Gout, Rheumatism, Neuralgia, etc

Sold by Druggists everywhere, and at wholesale by REDINGTON & CO, Agents for the Pacific Coast, San Francisco. je24d7m4p

Medical and Surgical

INSTITUTE.

 CONSULTATION, IN ALL CASES, FREE.

 CURES GUARANTEED, OR NO PAY REQUIRED.

 IN ALL CASES WHERE CONFIDENCE IS REQUIRED THE UTMOST SECRECY MAINTAINED.

The above rules, established by Dr. J. C. Young in 1850, and which have done so much to secure the reputation of this Institute, are still adhered to, affording those in need of medical aid, the certainty of cure and the utmost confidence.

There is nothing of so great importance to the sick as to know where to find a physician whose skill and humanity give assurance of proper and delicate treatment. The Doctor would respectfully call the attention of those of both sexes who are suffering or in trouble to the invariable success that has marked the career of the Institute in the seventeen years of its existence.

It is unnecessary in this connection to enumerate all the complaints treated at the Institute, but the Doctor feels it his duty to call special attention to that horrible scourge,

SEMINAL WEAKNESS,

That is sapping with its insidious power the very life of its victims; in the treatment and cure of which the Institute has earned so enviable a reputation.

READ! READ!

I am aware that by dwelling upon so uninviting a subject as the decay of manly vigor through the loss of the vital principle of life, the ignorant may [illegible] guish and decay, the true cause of their affliction, is too great an [illegible] to be forced into abeyance. How extended the terrible disease of Seminal Weakness is, no one but the practical specialist who devotes his time to its treatment can tell; but its presence can be detected by the most inexperienced by noting the following symptoms, Weakness of the back and limbs; languid feelings, loss of muscular power, nervousness, irritability; cold feet or hands, accompanied by hot head; [illegible] of consumption, [illegible] of the face; aversion to society; [illegible] of the [illegible] loss of [illegible] nightly [illegible] upon the least [illegible]: trembling; palpitation of the heart [illegible]

[illegible], if your experience any of the [illegible] symptoms [illegible] named above, pause to [illegible] The [illegible] is the [illegible] in which you may [illegible] health and [illegible] You may feel [illegible] but if you have [illegible] the [illegible] of [illegible], you have the [illegible] sooner or later, dash the [illegible] of your strength to the [illegible] that [illegible] itself at once. Then it has its greatest [illegible] for while the [illegible] for some [illegible] of the [illegible] functions, he sinks into a general debility that soon adds him to the [illegible]

See in the bent form and [illegible] the poor victim of the [illegible] vice! Mark the course of the destructive [illegible] in the [illegible] sunk and dull eye!

Drowsiness is one of the premonitory symptoms. At [illegible] great distraction to pursue his regular [illegible] mind becomes apprehensive, and restless nights [illegible] days of depression

It is the nature of the complaint to [illegible] sudden changes that have [illegible] but little hope of recovery. In a single moment it may wither your fond hopes and blast your best aspirations.

Marriage is [illegible] by a natural impulse as a hope of relief. This huge error of the first [illegible] from which there is but the slightest hope of recovery. Or if the marriage should result in offspring, [illegible] This is applicable to both sexes, whether married or single, and to all [illegible] of life.

Do not delay if you feel any of the symptoms of the terrible complaint, or if your acts have been such as to lead to them, but by instant application secure to yourself the only hope of health and [illegible] The Doctor uses no mercury or other deleterious drugs [illegible] cures, when [illegible] restored.

The [illegible]

PERSONS AFFLICTED WITH VENEREAL.

During the seventeen years since the establishment of the Institute, the number of cases of V[illegible] that have been treated, shows a record unequaled by any hospital in the world, and the [illegible] that has invariably [illegible] the course of treatment,

Without Mercury or other Deleterious Drugs,

Shows [illegible] the use of them to be not only uncalled for, but actually dangerous, for it is a [illegible] established [illegible] that the [illegible] by poisoning the blood, ruin the constitution and destroy life.

The Doctor affects a cure in [illegible] in a few days, and finds [illegible] of long duration, without submitting the patient to such treatment as will [illegible] him to neglect his business, whether in [illegible] or without. The diet need not be [illegible] always guaranteed, or no pay required.

When a female is in trouble or afflicted with disease, and requires medical or surgical assistance, the inquiry [illegible] be, "Where is there a physician competent to administer relief, and whose respectable standing in society will recommend him to the confidence of the community?" The Doctor, understanding how imperatively necessary these requirements are, feels called upon to interpose, and by calling the attention of the afflicted to the fact that he has been a Professor of Obstetrics and Female Diseases for twenty years, and is fully qualified to administer in all cases, both medically and surgically, not in a superficial manner, but in as thorough a manner as years of study and practice—both in hospitals and private families—can make, to save them from the hands of the unqualified, unscrupulous or designing. Therefore, families can rely upon him as upon a father. All in affliction can find in him one who can feel and sympathize with and befriend them in trouble one in whose secrecy the utmost confidence can be placed consultation by letter or otherwise, free. Cures guaranteed in all weakness and trouble incidental to the sex Private apartments are provided, when desired, where can be had all the advantages of unremitted attention of the Doctor, and the most skillful and and faithful nurses.

To CORRESPONDENTS.—Persons, either male or female, residing in the interior, are often deterred from consulting the Doctor because they cannot spare the time, nor incur the [illegible] of a visit to the city To such he would say that a plain statement of the symptoms and [illegible], [illegible] upon the complaint, will enable him to [illegible] for them so that they can be cured at home. None need have any false delicacy about writing, no matter what the nature of their complaint, as the communication will be seen by no one except the Doctor, and will be treated with the utmost confidence, and either be returned or destroyed.

Consultation Free.
